

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Sharing ideas/thoughts through role play
Creating small worlds, sharing ideas with peers.
Working collaboratively on large scale junk modelling.
Listening to the needs of others and communicating their own needs when playing.
Role play - cooking, cleaning, Mummy's and Daddy's, sharing resources, taking turns, initiating play, showing an interest in others play.
Expressing our own interests and preferences.
Understanding emotions and recognising other's feelings.

Mathematics

Counting in order 1-5
Counting fruits / snacks - sorting and matching together.
Number nursery rhymes
Simple patterns
Counting how many children are in nursery
Filling and emptying
Spatial awareness

Understanding the World

Imitate everyday actions in pretend play
Enjoys pictures and stories about themselves or their family
Is curious about people and shows interest in stories about themselves and their family
Has a sense of own family and friends
Learns that they have similarities and differences between one another
Dressing up
Autumn and Winter

Physical

Moving in different ways through their favourite parts of the outdoor equipment.
Gross motor skills to draw lines and circles.
Fine motor skills - threading cotton reels, mark making skills using paint, water, pencils and crayons.
Large scale construction materials to build with.
Putting on clothes with the support of an adult.
Squiggle while you wiggle, Playdough play
Obstacle courses
Yoga

Me2 Nursery Topic Web

TOPIC TITLE:

Welcome to my world!

Books/Texts/Prints

Goat goes to playgroup
What I look like.
Photos of me at home.
Puppet play
Heads, Shoulders, Knees and Toes.
If You're Happy and You know It
Emotions books, mirror play

Vocabulary

Eyes, nose, mouth, ears, hair
Family, mummy, daddy, brother, sister, grandma, grandpa. Emotions, happy, sad, angry.
Nursery Rhymes - Family finger song, Head shoulders knees and toes, If you're happy and you know it, Ring o roses, Round the garden, Twinkle Twinkle little star

Literacy

Enjoys joining in with nursery rhymes
Sharing their favourite stories
Give meaning to the marks they make
We will be learning new words and emotions
Learns new words rapidly and uses them in communicating
Sensory play

Expressive Arts and Design

We will be exploring printing using different materials and tools
Imaginative play will be developed through role-play and small world play.
Exploring prints with our hands and looking at faces.
Using mirrors to see facial features and expressions
Printing
Playing musical instruments

Communication and Language

Joining in with songs and rhymes.
Listens to and follows simple instructions.
Answers who, what, when where questions.
Listens to stories with increasing attention and recall.
Uses simple sentences
Intensive interaction
Letters and sounds activities